Moulana Abdurrahman Bhamjee – Keynote Presenter

Moulana Abdurrahman Bhamjee is a dedicated educator, Imaam, and youth mentor with over 18 years of experience in both mainstream and Islamic education. He holds a Master of Education (with distinction) and currently serves as Head of Department at Al-Aqsa Primary School, where he leads key subject areas and focuses on developing both academic excellence and strong character in learners.

Beyond the classroom, he serves as Head of Department and Islamiyyat Supervisor at the Lenasia Muslim Association, guiding Islamic education programmes and mentoring educators to deliver meaningful and impactful learning.

Since 2008, he has served as an Imaam, delivering Jumu'ah talks, leading salaah, and working closely with communities to provide spiritual guidance and support. His ability to connect with people of all ages allows him to inspire positive change both inside and outside the classroom.

Moulana Bhamjee is also actively involved in youth development through the CII Youth Foundation, where he facilitates leadership programmes aimed at empowering young people to make confident, principled decisions. He further contributed to the development of learners at a national level through his involvement in the South African National Qur'aan Competition (SANQC) from 2012 to 2024.

A registered educator with the South African Council for Educators, he is passionate about building future leaders who are grounded in values, driven by purpose, and committed to making a positive impact in their communities.

Core Message:

Leadership is not about position, but about influence, responsibility, and the ability to make the right decisions—especially when it matters most.

Qari Muhammad Sheik – Presenter

Educational Leader & Youth Development Specialist

A seasoned educator and dedicated leader with over a decade of experience in academic and spiritual mentorship. Since completing my studies in Durban in 2012, I have committed my career to the holistic development of youth. My approach integrates formal classroom instruction with dynamic extracurricular engagement, ensuring that learners are mentored to achieve their full potential both intellectually and personally.

Professional Journey

- Johannesburg Muslim School | Educator
- 2016 – Present
- Relocated to Johannesburg to continue a legacy of academic excellence, contributing years of classroom expertise to one of the region's prominent institutions.

Cii Youth Foundation | Madrasah Uthmaan & Madrasah Umar (R.A)

- 2025 – Present
- Currently serving within the Cii Youth Foundation, focusing on the specialized educational needs of the community and fostering growth through structured Madrasah environments.

Madrasah Aysha | Head of Maktab (2024)

Led the afternoon Maktab program, overseeing curriculum delivery and student development during a pivotal year of growth.

Verulam Islamic School | Educator (2013 – 2016)

Initiated my professional teaching career in Durban, balancing formal morning education with a leadership role as the Head of a local Maktab in Verulam.

Key Contributions & Expertise

- Holistic Youth Development: Beyond the classroom, I have facilitated numerous workshops and outings designed to shape character and life skills.
- Mentorship: Deeply committed to the long-term success of my learners, providing the guidance necessary for them to reach their individual milestones.
- Educational Leadership: Extensive experience in heading Maktab programs, managing both staff and students to maintain high standards of Islamic education.

I believe that true education happens both "in and out of the classroom." By combining rigorous academic standards with hands-on mentorship, I aim to empower the next generation to be confident, well-rounded contributors to society.
